Hymn #437 1st verse

Tell Out My Soul

Tell out, my soul,
the greatness of the Lord!
Unnumbered blessings
give my spirit voice;
tender to me the promise of His word;
in God my Savior shall my heart rejoice.

Opening Acclamation

Celebrant:

Bless the Lord who forgives all our sins;

People:

His mercy endures for ever.

The Decalogue:

Lead by : Cai Prince

Leader:

Hear the commandments of God to his people:

I am the Lord your God who brought you out of bondage.

You shall have no other gods but me.

Celebrant:

Let us humbly confess our sins unto Almighty God.

Silence may be kept.

Minister and People:

Most merciful God, we confess that we have sinned against you in thought, word, and deed, by what we have done, and by what we have left undone. We have not loved you with our whole heart; we have not loved our neighbors as ourselves. We are truly sorry and we humbly repent.

For the sake of your Son Jesus Christ,
have mercy on us and forgive us;
that we may delight in your will, and walk in your ways to the glory of your Name. Amen.

Celebrant:

Almighty God have mercy on you, forgive you all your sins through our Lord Jesus Christ, strengthen you in all goodness, and by the power of the Holy Spirit keep you in eternal life.

People: Amen.

The Collect

Celebrant: The Lord be with you.

People: And also with you.

Celebrant: Let us pray.

The Collect

Fifth Sunday in Lent

Celebrant:

Almighty God, You alone can bring into order the unruly wills and affections of sinners: Grant Your people grace to love what you command and desire what You promise;

that, among the swift and varied changes of the world, our hearts may surely there be fixed where true joys are to be found; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with You and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever.

People: Amen.

Prayer during the 50th Anniversary Year in the Diocese of Southeast Florida.

(Celebrant & People say together)

Faithful and eternal God, whose Son Jesus Christ is the brightness of your glory, the one foundation and the chief cornerstone of the Church: we give you thanks for the gift of your Church, and especially for this community of faith in our region of Southeast Florida as we celebrate our 50th anniversary. Continue to prosper, we pray, the work of your people, begun, continued, and ended in you, that as we seek to become the beloved community, so may we always show forth your glory in the love we share, through him who first loved us, Jesus Christ our Lord; who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, One God, now and for ever.

Amen.

The First Lesson:

A Reading from

The Book of the

Read by: Daniella Haynes

The hand of the Lord came upon me, and He brought me out by the spirit of the Lord and set me down in the middle of a valley; it was full of bones. He led me all around them; there were very many lying in the valley, and they were very dry. He said to me, "Mortal, can these bones live?" I answered, "O Lord GOD, You know." Then He said to me, "Prophecy to these bones, and say to them: O dry bones, hear the word of the Lord. Thus says the Lord GOD to these bones: I will cause breath to enter you, and you shall live. I will lay sinews on you, and will cause flesh to come upon you, and cover you with skin, and put breath in you, and you shall live; and you shall know that I am the Lord.”

So I prophesied as I had been commanded; and as I prophesied, suddenly there was a noise, a rattling, and the bones came together, bone to its bone. I looked, and there were sinews on them, and flesh had come upon them, and skin had covered them; but there was no breath in them. Then He said to me, "Prophecy to the breath, prophecy, mortal, and say to the breath: Thus says the Lord GOD: Come from the four winds, O breath, and breathe upon these slain, that they may live." I prophesied as He commanded me, and the breath came into them, and they lived, and stood on their feet, a vast multitude.

Then He said to me, "Mortal, these bones are the whole house of Israel.

They say, ‘Our bones are dried up, and our hope is lost; we are cut off completely.’ Therefore prophesy, and say to them, thus says the Lord GOD: I am going to open your graves, and bring you up from your graves, O my people; and I will bring you back to the land of Israel.

And you shall know that I am the Lord, when I open your graves, and bring you up from your graves, O my people. I will put My spirit within you, and you shall live, and I will place you on your own soil; then you shall know that I, the Lord, have spoken and will act," says the Lord.

Psalm 130

Lead by: Johnathan Williams

- 1. Out of the depths have I called to You, O LORD; LORD, hear my voice;
let Your ears consider well the voice of my supplication.

2. If You, LORD, were to note what is done amiss, O Lord, who could stand?
3. For there is forgiveness with You; therefore You shall be feared.
4. I wait for the LORD; my soul waits for Him; in His Word is my hope.

5. My soul waits for the LORD, more than watchmen for the morning, more than watchmen for the morning.

6. O Israel, wait for the LORD, for with the LORD there is mercy;

7. With Him there is plenteous redemption, and He shall redeem Israel from all their sins.

The Second Lesson:

A Reading from

Paul's Letter to the Romans

[8:6-11]

Read by: Joelle Horsford

To set the mind on the flesh is death, but to set the mind on the Spirit is life and peace. For this reason the mind that is set on the flesh is hostile to God; it does not submit to God's law - indeed it cannot, and those who are in the flesh cannot please God.

But you are not in the flesh; you are in the Spirit, since the Spirit of God dwells in you. Anyone who does not have the Spirit of Christ does not belong to Him. But if Christ is in you, though the body is dead because of sin, the Spirit is life because of righteousness.

If the Spirit of Him who raised Jesus from the dead dwells in you,
He who raised Christ from the dead will give life to your mortal bodies also through His Spirit that dwells in you.

Hymn #688:

A Mighty Fortress is Our God

A mighty fortress is our God,
a bulwark never failing;
our helper He amid the flood of mortal ills prevailing,

for still our ancient foe
doth seek to work us woe;
His craft and power are great,
and, armed with cruel hate,
on earth is not His equal.

The Holy Gospel

Gospeller:

The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ
according to John

[11:1-15]

People:

Glory to You, Lord Christ.

Now a certain man was ill, Lazarus of Bethany, the village of Mary and her sister Martha. Mary was the one who anointed the Lord with perfume and wiped His feet with her hair; her brother Lazarus was ill. So the sisters sent a message to Jesus, "Lord, he whom You love is ill."

But when Jesus heard it, He said,
"This illness does not lead to death;
rather it is for God's glory, so that the Son of God may be glorified through it." Accordingly, though Jesus loved Martha and her sister and Lazarus,
after having heard that Lazarus was ill,
He stayed two days longer in the place where He was.

Then after this He said to the disciples, "Let us go to Judea again." The disciples said to Him, "Rabbi, the Jews were just now trying to stone You, and are You going there again?" Jesus answered, "Are there not twelve hours of daylight? Those who walk during the day do not stumble, because they see the light of this world. But those who walk at night stumble, because the light is not in them." After saying this, He told them, "Our friend Lazarus has fallen asleep, but I am going there to awaken him." The disciples said to Him, "Lord, if he has fallen asleep, he will be all right."

Jesus, however, had been speaking about His death, but they thought that He was referring merely to sleep.

Then Jesus told them plainly,

"Lazarus is dead. For your sake I am glad I was not there, so that you may believe. But let us go to him."

Thomas, who was called the twin, said to his fellow disciples, "Let us also go, that we may die with him." When Jesus arrived, He found that Lazarus had already been in the tomb four days. Now Bethany was near Jerusalem, some two miles away, and many of the Jews had come to Martha and Mary to console them about their brother. When Martha heard that Jesus was coming, she went and met Him, while Mary stayed at home. Martha said to Jesus, "Lord, if You had been here, my brother would not have died. But even now I know that God will give You whatever You ask of Him." Jesus said to her, "Your brother will rise again." Martha said to Him, "I know that he will rise again in the resurrection on the last day." Jesus said to her, "I am the resurrection and the life. Those who believe in Me, even though they die, will live, and everyone who lives and believes in Me will never die. Do you believe this?"

She said to Him, "Yes, Lord, I believe that You are the Messiah, the Son of God, the One coming into the world." When she had said this, she went back and called her sister Mary, and told her privately, "The Teacher is here and is calling for you." And when she heard it, she got up quickly and went to Him. Now Jesus had not yet come to the village, but was still at the place where Martha had met Him. The Jews who were with her in the house, consoling her, saw Mary get up quickly and go out. They followed her because they thought that she was going to the tomb to weep there.

When Mary came where Jesus was and saw Him, she knelt at His feet and said to Him, "Lord, if You had been here, my brother would not have died." When Jesus saw her weeping, and the Jews who came with her also weeping, He was greatly disturbed in spirit and deeply moved. He said,

"Where have you laid him?" They said to Him, "Lord, come and see." Jesus began to weep. So the Jews said, "See how He loved him!" But some of them said, "Could not He who opened the eyes of the blind man have kept this man from dying?"

Then Jesus, again greatly disturbed, came to the tomb. It was a cave, and a stone was lying against it. Jesus said, "Take away the stone."

Martha, the sister of the dead man, said to Him, "Lord, already there is a stench because he has been dead four days." Jesus said to her, "Did I not tell you that if you believed, you would see the glory of God?" So they took away the stone. And Jesus looked upward and said, "Father, I thank You for having heard Me. I knew that You always hear Me, but I have said this for the sake of the crowd standing here, so that they may believe that You sent Me." When He had said this, He cried with a loud voice, "Lazarus, come out!" The dead man came out, his hands and feet bound with strips of cloth, and his face wrapped in a cloth. Jesus said to them, "Unbind him, and let him go."

Many of the Jews therefore, who had come with Mary and had seen what Jesus did, believed in Him.

Praise to You,
Lord Christ.

And though this world,
with devils filled,
should threaten to undo us;
we will not fear, for God hath willed
His truth to triumph through us;

the prince of darkness grim,
we tremble not for Him;
His rage we can endure,
for lo! His doom is sure,
one little word shall fell Him.

"I AM

The Sermon

The Nicene Creed

Lead by Dylan Loi

Let us reaffirm our faith in the words of the Nicene Creed

We believe in one God,
the Father,
the Almighty, maker of heaven and earth,
of all that is,
seen and unseen.

We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ,
the only Son of God,
eternally begotten of the Father,
God from God, Light from Light,
true God from true God,
begotten, not made,
of one being with the Father.

Through Him all things were made.

For us and for our salvation

He came down from heaven:

by the power of the Holy Spirit

He became incarnate

from the Virgin Mary,

and was made man.

For our sake He was crucified
under Pontius Pilate;
He suffered death and was buried.
On the third day
He rose again in accordance with the Scriptures;

He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father.

He will come again in glory
to judge the living and the dead,
and His kingdom will have no end.

We believe in the Holy Spirit,
the Lord, the giver of life,
who proceeds from the Father and the Son.

With the Father and the Son
He is worshiped and glorified.
He has spoken through the Prophets.

We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church.

We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins.

We look for the resurrection of the dead, and the life of the world to come.

Amen.

Prayers of the People in Time of Corona Virus

Let us pray to the Lord, who is our refuge and stronghold.

For all who are affected by coronavirus,
through illness or isolation or anxiety,
that they may find relief and recovery:

Lord, hear us,

Lord, graciously hear us.

For those who are guiding our nation
at this time,
and shaping national policies,
that they may make wise decisions:

Lord, hear us,

Lord, graciously hear us.

For those who are guiding our nation
at this time,
and shaping national policies,
that they may make wise decisions:

Lord, hear us,

Lord, graciously hear us.

For doctors, nurses and medical researchers, that through their skill and insights
many will be restored to health:

Lord, hear us,

Lord, graciously hear us.

For the vulnerable and the fearful,
for the gravely ill and the dying,
that they may know your comfort and peace:

Lord, hear us,

Lord, graciously hear us.

For the isolated and housebound,
that we may be alert to their needs,
and care for them in their vulnerability:

Lord, hear us,

Lord, graciously hear us.

For our homes and families,
our schools and young people,
and all in any kind of need or distress:

Lord, hear us,

Lord, graciously hear us.

For those who are celebrating anniversary of birth this week.....

(Silence)

...and for those celebrating their Wedding Anniversary,

Lord, hear us,

Lord, graciously hear us.

For a blessing on our local community, that our neighborhoods may be places of trust and friendship, where all are known and cared for:

Lord, hear us,

Lord, graciously hear us.

We commend ourselves,
and all for whom we pray,
to the mercy and protection of God.
Merciful Father, accept these prayers
for the sake of your Son,
our Savior Jesus Christ.

Amen.

People:

We lift them up unto the Lord.

Celebrant

We celebrate the memorial of our redemption, O Father, in this sacrifice of praise and thanksgiving. Recalling his death, resurrection, and ascension, we offer ourselves our souls and bodies and all our gifts. Sanctify them by your Holy Spirit to be for your people the Body and Blood of your Son, the holy food and drink of new and unending life in him. Sanctify us also that we may faithfully receive this holy Sacrament of your Body and Blood given for us that we may serve you in constancy, and peace; and at the last day bring us with all your saints into the joy of your eternal kingdom.

Amen

The Lord's Prayer

Celebrant:

As our Savior Christ has taught us,
we are bold to pray,

The Lord's Prayer

Our Father, Who art in heaven, Hallowed be Thy name.
Thy kingdom come.
Thy will be done on earth
as it is in heaven.

Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our debts,
as we forgive our debtors.
And lead us not into temptation;
But deliver us from evil:
For Thine is the kingdom,
and the power, and the glory,
forever. Amen.
